4 years ago

Do you love gin?

Guys the first time I tasted Sugarbird Gin was at a gin tasting where loads of other brands were also there, and low and behold I ended buying two bottles that day of the this gin, because it was that good!

So I was excited to find out that they are having their own tasting. Hosted by Piza E Vino in Melrose Arch, this Cape Fynbos gin is a must if you haven't tasted it before.

We all love a good gin especially because you can mix in so many ways! So if you are looking for a Wednesday crush this coming Wednesday, the 17 of April, then come on over to Piza E Vino for just R160 you get three Signature G&T Cocktails and Sharing pizza.
